"WHERE ARE WE?" COMPETITION NO 17

I am delighted to kick off this winter's series of "Where Are We?" Competitions with another "Where Is Pearl Fisher?" courtesy of Paddy O'Connor who has most kindly sent me lots of photographs he has taken in his never ending quest for the most perfect location for a cup of tea onboard Pearl Fisher!! The task is to identify where Pearl Fisher was when the photograph was taken. There is no requirement to identify the direction the camera was pointing for this competition, unless you wish to gain bonus points!! As before, there are no prizes, it is just for fun. I will send out the answers shortly before Christmas, together with Competition 18.
